Violation Number    Nature of Noncompliance

1.

On November 20, 2010, the offender threw a television remote control at his wife causing visible injuries to her left arm. On the same date, Lopez-Pizano was arrested by the Fresno Police Department and charged with Corporal Injury on Spouse, a misdemeanor offense and in violation of the conditions ordering Lopez-Pizano not to commit another federal, state, or local crime during the term of supervision. Lopez-Pizano was released on a $25,000 bail and has appeared to all scheduled proceedings. The case was subsequently dismissed on February 2, 2011, due to insufficient evidence.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The U.S. Probation Office recommends presentation of this document to the offender as a formal judicial written reprimand. The probation office in the Eastern District of California, where the offender resides, recommends no action be taken as Lopez-Pizano has maintained full-time employment, has been consistent in paying his monthly fine, and is remorseful for his actions. He appears eager to attend domestic violence counseling with his wife at the Fresno Family Center. The probation office in the Eastern District of California will continue to closely monitor his progress and report any further noncompliance.
